

ADITI KUMARI

Greetings,

I am a Undergraduate architecture student of Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women ( IGDTUW).

Architecture & Design to me is all about sustainability and minimalistic design mideas with the modernistic approach.

I am passionate about the filed and will always contribute my fullest towards the duty assigned.

Looking forward to new learning encounter and which to develop personally and as an architect from the exposure and knowledge from the professional world and create some architectural marvel.
